Just ask Paul...

Why should we support the Charity?

Because this is an Industry Charity for Industry people, it directly helps people who have fallen on hard times.

Whether you are fighting cancer, suffering with depression or coping with redundancy, we are here to assist both financially and emotionally.

© 0800 652 1618

support@electricalcharity.org

Available 7 days a week offering free and independent assistance for virtually any problem or issue you may encounter. Our trained advisors assist everyone with respect and empathy.

